1. disturbance or problem which interrupts an event, activity, or process.
2. something that changes your plans or interrupts some event or process.

We often think of disruptions in a negative way; a phone ringing in a theater, a child screaming on an airplane, or a commercial at the dramatic part of a show. A disruption interrupts and creates a disturbance.

But what about the disruptions that break up negative patterns and habits? There are disruptions that intervene and allow for something new and better. Markets and industries get disrupted by new technology and innovation all the time. Sometimes we need a disruption to see things in a new way, change our way of thinking, or create new patterns and behaviors.

Holy Disruptions are the moments that God breaks into our lives and this world. God interrupts the way things are in order to create something new and life-giving. Holy Disruptions are when light invades the darkness, violence is disrupted by peace, judgment is disrupted by empathy, fear is disrupted by hope, and all our anger and division are disrupted by love.

2026 will be a year of Holy Disruptions. In a world so set in its ways, we'll be looking for all the ways God is disrupting our lives and this world with the beauty and holiness of grace. Join us for worship each Sunday throughout the year at either 9:00 AM or 11:00 AM as we experience Holy Disruptions.
