Drop your donations in the donation bins around the church!

United Women in Faith Lunch and Program on November 16

Everyone is invited to attend the UWF lunch and program on Sunday, November 15, after the 11:00 am worship service, in the Fellowship Hall. Our speakers are Julie and Kent Holt, who, after retiring, decided to actively resist the harsh immigration policies placed on many of our immigrant neighbors. What began as protesting at Little Rock's ICE facility grew into representing a Haitian family now facing deportation. The Holts will share their experiences and this family's story, which serves as a synopsis of the immigration crisis and a testament to the love and reach of United Methodists. If you plan to attend, please fill out the Journey Card in the bulletin or call the church office at 501-372-2256 so we can prepare enough food.

And the winner is...

You all donated 249 cans to our "souper" harvest in October. Our neighbors will have warm bellies this season. Thank you! First Tradition donated 105 cans, and First Word came out on top with 144. Let's keep the season of giving going by donating requested items to our child development center in November. No competition this month, but we will be united as one body supporting our children. Bring items to the donation bins around the church. See image for details.

ViPS Reading Ray with Get Loud, AR

Join us alongside Get Loud Arkansas in partnering with volunteers in public schools (ViPS) by participating in the annual ViPS Reading Day on November 17. Gla volunteers will read a book to elementary students about the importance of registering to vote and participating in the voting process. After reading the book, we will lead the students in a short classroom voting activity. The book, a simple lesson plan, and a GLA t-shirt will be provided to each volunteer. This is your last chance to sign up!

Please join us by taking the following steps:

1. Sign up with ViPS by going to the link: VIPs Reading Day registration: https://www.emailmeform.com/builder/form/ge4kscip2cbfamwkfef59xq
